

Drivers Education:

As of January 2010, Nacel Open Door will no longer allow students to pursue or participate in drivers' education courses while on program. Those students currently arriving for the 2009 fall semester MUST have completed their drivers' education classes prior to January 1st, 2010.

The following requirements only apply for the August 2009 students:

Drivers' Education Course:

1). School Course:

Student may participate 'only' in drivers' education courses that are offered at their enrolled high school. Enrollment through a private, commercial driving school is not permitted

The school 'must' provide insurance to fully cover the student driver

Students are 'only' allowed to participate in the in-classroom instruction

School 'must' provide specially equipped drivers' education car for instruction. Any behind the wheel training must be part of the instructor's in-classroom teaching

Students and their natural parents are responsible for all costs associated with course

2). Host Families OR Others:

Host families OR others are 'not' permitted to allow the student to use their personal cars or rental cars for driving practice. Behind the wheel driving instruction is not permitted outside of the behind the wheel hours included in the course's instructor's classroom

Our Nacel program rules do not allow students to drive while on program

Our insurance policy does not permit student driving due to associated liability risks

Any student that violates our driving policy will be sent home. The student's program will be terminated, pending travel arrangements to home country.
