PART I: HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES, AWARDS, & INTERESTS

In the space allotted below, list your activities and achievements. Also, please specify how many hours per month you spend doing these activities. Limit your answer to only those activities from your high school years.

ACTIVITIES

HOURS PER MONTH

Activities and organizations in which you have been a frequent participant. Specify any offices held.

Athletic teams you were or are a member of and number of years of participation.

Community activities in which you have been involved, such as scouts, volunteer work, religious youth groups, peer tutoring, etc.

Creative work, hobbies or special training, such as music, dance, drama or foreign language, which you have pursued to the point of some mastery.

Paid work or jobs you have held. Specify the type of work you did and the length of time employed.

Prizes, honors, offices or special recognition you have received, such as National Honor Society, foreign language, creative writing, science, music, team captain, etc.

Travel, domestic and international.

PART II: FUTURE CAREER FIELD

Describe the career field in which you hope to work, and why. Explain how a language and cultural experience abroad might further your career objectives.

PART III: INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE

Please answer the following set of questions, in approximately 250-400 words per response. If you need more space, please create a separate document to continue your answer(s), and submit it with the rest of your application.

1. What appeals to you most about living in Germany on the CBYX program? Tell us why you would like to be a part of the CBYX program and how you will contribute to its mission.

2. Describe in depth one of the activities you listed in Part I that you find particularly meaningful. What impact has it made on your life and/or in the lives of others?

3. There has probably been a time when you have stayed with someone other than your parents. Describe the differences you encountered while away from home and how you dealt with them.

4. Reflecting on a non-academic conflict you've experienced in the past two years, briefly describe the situation and elaborate on how you addressed the challenge. Focus your response on what techniques, coping mechanisms, or resources you employed to address the challenge.

5. A year abroad in Germany can be a rich and varied life experience, filled with many different feelings. Two of these could be a feeling of satisfaction and, at times, a feeling of loneliness. Describe two recent instances when you experienced these feelings and briefly tell how you expressed your satisfaction and dealt with your loneliness.

PART V: PERSONAL ESSAYS

This is a two-part writing assignment. Please complete both essays. These essays are a substantial part of your application and will be reviewed carefully by the Selection Committee. Please create a separate, typed document for EACH essay, include your name on each, and submit them with the rest of your application.

Essay A: Type a letter to your host family in which you describe yourself, your family, your activities and interests, your community, and your goals for the future. Think of the letter in terms of the first impression your German host family would have of you. Please format your essay as a letter addressed to "Dear Host Family," and include a closing (such as "Sincerely,").

Essay B: Type a response to the following: In what ways is your family important to you? What do you see as special about your family? Describe your relationship with each family member.

PART VI: DEMOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

Please complete the demographic information questions, which are found on page 6 of this application. This information is for statistical use only. The demographic information is not used for scholarship selection, but is requested by the U.S. Department of State for the purpose of understanding the background and circumstances of the students who apply for their scholarship programs.

CONFIRMATION & SIGNATURES

Please note that, should you be selected as a finalist, confirmation of the scholarship is contingent upon fulfillment of the medical, placement, academic, and other requirements of Nacel Open Door. The Congress-Bundestag scholarship does not include domestic airfare within the U.S., nor does it include spending money, passport, or residence permit expenses for students during their exchange year. For individuals who demonstrate financial need, additional financial support may be available for these expenses and can be applied for after an individual is informed of their selection for the program.

I hereby certify that the information contained in this application is truthful, and that I have read the preceding statement and understand that acceptance to the program is not final until these requirements have been fulfilled.

I agree that the below checkbox, as well as my name and the date, will constitute an electronic signature on this CBYX Vocational Scholarship Application. I further agree that this electronic signature is the legally binding equivalent to my handwritten signature.
