For general information about the CBYX Vocational Scholarship, please see the CBYX Vocational Overview.

2026-2027 CBYX Vocational Scholarship Program Eligibility Requirements:

1. Be a U.S. Citizen;
2. Be a current high school senior (12th grade) at time of application;
3. Be aged 18 or 19 by August 1, 2026 (some flexibility allowed);
4. Have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or above on a 4.0 scale;
5. Have an interest in learning the German language (no German language study/knowledge required to apply);
6. Comply with U.S. Department of State's eligibility policy for American Outbound Youth Programs (available at <https://usagermanyscholarship.org/how-to-apply/>);
7. Be willing to abide by CBYX Vocational 26-27 Terms & Conditions if selected as a finalist, including vaccination requirements;
8. A limit of three students may be nominated per school.

Please note that, should you be selected as a finalist, confirmation of the scholarship is contingent upon fulfillment of the medical, placement, academic, and other requirements of Nacel Open Door, including agreement to abide by the CBYX Terms & Conditions. The Congress-Bundestag scholarship includes international airfare and a modest monthly stipend, but does not include domestic airfare, passport fees, additional spending money, or other expenses related to an exchange year abroad. For individuals who demonstrate financial need, additional financial support may be available for these expenses and can be applied for after an individual is informed of their selection for the program.

Providing false information or using Artificial Intelligence (ChatGPT, OpenAI, etc.) will lead to disqualification or expulsion from the program.

2026-2027 Eligibility Policy for U.S. Youth Programs Applicants

The U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) offers international exchange opportunities open to all American youth. ECA is committed to ensuring a merit-based, fair, and transparent selection process. Opportunities include the following:

- Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange (CBYX) Outbound
- Future Leaders Exchange Abroad Program (FLEX Abroad)
- Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study Abroad (YES Abroad)
- National Security Language Initiative for Youth (NSLI-Y)
- Youth Ambassadors and Youth Leadership Programs

Students who have not previously participated in an in-person exchange program are encouraged to apply. Programs are predominantly designed for students who have not lived abroad for six months or longer during the last five years.

To be eligible, an individual must:

- Be a U.S. citizen
- Be enrolled in grades 9-12 (high school, including home school) at the time of application
- Meet age, GPA, and other requirements specific to the program
- Not be subject to the employment-related ineligibility categories described below currently or for a period of one year following the termination of such employment, association, or service:
 - Employees of the U.S. Department of State. This provision includes all employees, paid or unpaid (including part-time or temporary employees, consultants, externs, interns, fellows and personal services contractors).
 - Immediate family members (e.g. dependent children) of employees of the U.S. Department of State. This provision includes all employees, paid or unpaid (including part-time or temporary employees, consultants, externs, interns, fellows and personal services contractors). Self-supporting children who live apart from their parents are qualified to participate.

- Employees (and their immediate family members) of private and public organizations under contract or cooperative agreement/grant with the U.S. Department of State who perform services on behalf of ECA Youth exchange programs. This provision includes all employees, paid or unpaid (including part-time or temporary employees, local coordinators, consultants, externs, interns, fellows and personal services contractors).

Eligibility for More than One Program:

- Individuals may not participate in two of the above-listed youth programs in the same calendar year.
- Individuals may not participate in more than two of the above-listed programs, unless one of the programs was virtual.
- Current or past participants of a short-duration in-person program of up to 8 weeks are not eligible for another short-duration program but are eligible for an academic year program.
- Current or past participants of an academic year program are not eligible for another program, listed above.
- Current or past participants in a virtual program are eligible to participate in a short duration or academic year program.
